

WWI Reading Outline
Section I pages 1-11

What is the date usually given of the beginning of trench warfare proper?

Place trenches began-ended, miles long

Difference of the land held by the German's as compared to the British. Why is one better than the other

Parapet/box trenches

Be able to draw and label the parts of a trench and what they were used for

Funk-holes, what are they and why were they dangerous.

Difference between German dugouts and Allies. Provide details

Fatigues

Wiring party

No man's land

Section II pages 12-21

Troop movements through the trenches

Weight of equipment carried by country

Sumps

Duckboards

Great-coats

Survivor of the Third Battle of Ypres

Cleaning dirty cartridges and clogged mechanisms

Rain/mud and freezing water

Danger of lighting a brazier in a dugout

French attempting to stay warm

Latrines

Sentry duty

Typical 24 hours for a soldier